Unemployment benefits are taxable income under state and federal law. You have the option of having income taxes withheld from your weekly unemployment benefits. To do so, you must complete the Agreement to Withhold Taxes section below and return the form to the Unemployment Contact Center. To end a current withholding, complete the Request to Cancel Withholdings section below and return the form to the Unemployment Contact Center.

Agreement to Withhold Taxes

Select each type of tax you agree to have withheld from your weekly benefits:

Federal: I want 10 percent of my weekly benefit amount withheld to go toward my federal income tax obligation.

Kansas: I want 3.5 percent of my weekly benefit amount withheld to go toward my state income tax obligation.

Certification: I understand that by making tax elections in this section and submitting this form to the Unemployment Contact Center, my weekly benefit amount will be reduced to make the chosen tax withholdings. I further understand that such withholdings will continue to be made until I send a written notice to stop tax withholdings.

Request to Cancel Withholdings

Select each type of tax withholding you would like to end:

Federal: I want to stop withholding federal income taxes from my weekly benefit amount.

Kansas: I want to stop withholding state income taxes from my weekly benefit amount.

Certification: I understand that by making tax elections in this section and submitting this form to the Unemployment Contact Center, the Department of Labor will no longer withhold the selected taxes from my weekly benefit amount. I further understand that I am still obligated to pay state and federal income taxes on all unemployment benefits paid to me.
