

48th Annual Workers Compensation Virtual Seminar
September 27-30, 2022

Kansas Attorney Continuing Legal Education (CLE)
INSTRUCTIONS AND DOCUMENTATION PACKET

1. DOCUMENT ATTENDANCE

- Once you have signed in the Seminar page at <https://kdol.brandlive.com/-48th-Annual-Workers-Compensation-Seminar>, your attendance will be automatically tracked when you enter each session you attend.

PRINT your name on the attached Kansas Attorney Documentation Sheet, and

- WRITE the number of minutes you spend at each session on the line directly across from the session's title

All sessions listed on the Kansas Attorney Documentation Sheet are approved for CLE credits.
See Attendance at Medical Track Sessions (below) to apply for CLE credits on your own.

2. ATTENDANCE AT MEDICAL TRACK SESSIONS
KANSAS ATTORNEYS ONLY

INTERDISCIPLINARY PROGRAMMING - Unless listed on the attached Kansas Attorney Documentation Sheet, Medical Track sessions are not pre-approved for CLE credits. If you choose to attend Medical Track sessions, you must seek continuing legal education credits on your own using CLE Rule 804 (c) and 806 (j) Interdisciplinary Programming.

3. AFFIDAVIT AND ATTACHED DOCUMENTATION

ATTENTION: Affidavits will not be available for our virtual seminar. Instead we will use polls at each General Session and Legal Track.

- To calculate CLE and Ethics/Professionalism (EP) Credit Hours, follow directions under Turning Minutes into CLE Credit Hours on page 2

RULES GOVERNING AND RELATING TO CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION

Rule 803 (b) Minimum Requirements, Carryover Credit:

Carryover Credit. If an active attorney completes CLE credit hours at approved programs during a compliance period exceeding the number of hours required by subsection (a) and the practitioner complies with the requirements of Rule 806, the practitioner may carry forward to the next compliance period up to 10 unused general attendance credit hours from the compliance period during which the credit hours were earned. However, ethics and professionalism credit hours in excess of the 2-hour requirement in subsection (a) may be carried forward as general attendance credit hours but not as ethics and professionalism credit. CLE credit hours approved for teaching, authorship, or law practice management credit do not qualify for carryover credit.

Rule 804 (g)(1) Accreditation of Programming, Standards:

CLE credit must be awarded on the basis of 1 credit hour for each 50 minutes actually spent in attendance at instructional activities, exclusive of introductory remarks, meals, breaks or other noneducational activities. One-half credit hour must be awarded for attendance of at least 25 but less than 50 minutes. No credit may be claimed for smaller fractional units.

TURNING MINUTES INTO CLE CREDIT HOURS

Attending a single day only: The maximum number of minutes approved for day one is 360 and for day two is 300. If you attend a single day only - combine the total number of CLE Minutes you spent in sessions and divide by 50. Round back to the nearest half point (.5).

If you attend Day Two only - Repeat the process to determine the number of Ethics/Professionalism hours. Do not count minutes you were tardy or not in sessions.

Attending both days: The maximum number minutes approved for both days is 660. If you attend both days - combine the total number of CLE Minutes you spent in sessions both days and divide by 50. Round back to the nearest half point (.5). Repeat to determine the number of Ethics/Professionalism hours. Do not count minutes you were tardy or not in sessions.

Record the final number(s) on your packet. Save your packet and return your packet to Tara Noll at Tara.Noll@ks.gov

See Rules Governing and Relating to Continuing Legal Education (above).
