

ANDY ADDIS

Pastor, Speaker, Trainer

Andy Addis is a pastor, leader, motivational speaker/trainer and author. Addis claims his most important roles are Christian, husband and father. CrossPoint Church is a multisite network of churches with numerous locations throughout Kansas and a congregation of more than 2,500. Addis has spoken motivationally for Wal-Mart, Blue Cross Blue Shield, fire and emergency organizations, educational institutions (grade schools, high schools and universities), countless small business gatherings, community organizations and services for law enforcement. During the last decade Addis has led conferences like ADVANCE Leadership, Super Summer Youth Camps, Fellowship of Christian Athletes events, Christian Challenge College Conferences, church revivals, men's gatherings/retreats, Christian leadership/pastoral training events and a variety of one-day speaking opportunities. Addis is the author of several books, including "Reading It Right", "Count It All Joy", "Doing More Together", "Rhythms" and "BLOTCH". In addition to holding a bachelor's and a master's degree in Communication from Fort Hays State University, Addis has a Master of Divinity with Biblical Languages from Southwestern Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas. His professional background as a college instructor, on-air radio personality, newspaper journalist, church staff member, independent speaker and trainer has provided countless opportunities in aiding his career as a communicator. Addis is married to Kathy, and they have two wonderful sons, Noah and Nathan.

CONTACT INFO

Email: andy@andyaddis.com

Phone: (620) 665-8983

General Session

Sept. 26 @ 8:15 a.m.