

HENRY GLEASON

Executive Producer – Property & Casualty Risk

Marsh McLennan Agency

Henry Gleason is a business risk consultant and commercial insurance broker at Marsh McLennan Agency in Overland Park, KS. He specializes in property and casualty risk serving MMA's Manufacturing and Distribution Practice Group. A Kansas City, Missouri native with deep family ties in Nebraska, Gleason pursued higher education at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. Early in his career Gleason was a key team member at a start-up manufacturing and distribution company headquartered out of Kansas City. He joined the Marsh McLennan Agency to utilize his strong analytical and consultative skill set to serve businesses that create and supply products used to enhance the quality of life for everyday Americans and the work they do each day, something he is passionate about. His expertise in business risk and insurance solutions make him an invaluable asset to his clients and the industry as a whole.
