Annual Workers Compensation Seminar Registration Open Online

TOPEKA, Kan. - Registration for the Kansas Department of Labor (KDOL) 42nd Annual Kansas Workers Compensation Seminar at the Overland Park Convention Center on Sept. 27 and 28 is now open online. Registration can be submitted until 4 p.m. on Sept. 14. Registration for the seminar will not be sold at the door.

Presentations will feature the Guides to the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment, Sixth Edition, future medical, the psychological impact of work related injuries, credits, offsets and pre-existing impairment, and alternative solutions to pain management. Attendees will also learn about Temporary Total Disability Payments, workers compensation basics, case management ethics and more.

Continuing education is pre-approved for Kansas and Missouri attorneys, Certified Case Managers and Kansas APRN, RN or LPN professionals. Assistance is available to attendees who are licensed or certified in occupations requiring continuing education credits that are not pre-approved. There are 720 minutes of education available during the seminar.

Attendees are encouraged to network with peers, the seminar's Gold and Silver sponsors and more than 90 exhibitors.

In connection with the seminar, the Workers Compensation Seminar Charity Golf Tournament will take place on Monday, Sept. 26 at the Oakwood Country Club. The tournament is coordinated by McAnany Van Cleave & Phillips, PA. Proceeds will benefit Lead to Read at www.leadtoreadkc.org. Tournament information and fillable registration can be found at <https://www.dol.ks.gov/WorkComp/seminar.aspx>.
