Registration for Annual Workers Compensation Seminar Closing in Three Weeks

TOPEKA, Kan. - Registration to attend the Kansas Department of Labor 41st Annual Kansas Workers Compensation Seminar on Sept. 29 and 30 must be postmarked by Sept. 14. Online registration will close at 4 p.m. on Sept. 16. Registration will not be available on site.

Presentations at the seminar will include information about workers compensation issues, including compensation, how the Affordable Care Act impacts workers compensation, disability and more. There also will be time for networking with peers, the seminar's Gold and Silver sponsors and visiting 100 exhibits.

Continuing education is pre-approved for Kansas and Missouri attorneys, Certified Case Managers, and Kansas RN, LPN, and LMHT professionals. Assistance is available to attendees licensed or certified in occupations requiring continuing education that are not pre-approved. There are 690 minutes of education available.

In connection with the seminar, the Workers Compensation Seminar Charity Golf Tournament, benefiting Heartstrings Community Foundation, will take place on Monday, Sept. 28. Heartstrings Community Foundation assists adults with the developmental disabilities to live meaningful, independent, productive lives through interactions within the community. The tournament at the Oakwood Country Club is coordinated by McAnany Van Cleave & Phillips, PA.
