

KDOL assists in the prevention of economic insecurity through unemployment insurance and workers compensation, by providing a fair and efficient venue to exercise employer and employee rights, and by helping employers promote a safe work environment for their employees. This facilitates compliance with labor laws while enabling advancement of the economic well-being of the citizens of Kansas.

SERVICES AND PROGRAMS

Kansas Department of Labor

401 SW Topeka Blvd.
Topeka, KS 66603-3182
(785) 296-5000 • www.dol.ks.gov

Unemployment Insurance

Contact Center Phone: (785) 575-1460
Contact Center Toll-Free: (800) 292-6333

The Unemployment Insurance (UI) division administers unemployment benefits. Claimants can apply for benefits and view their account online at www.GetKansasBenefits.gov. You will also find:

- A benefit calculator to estimate potential UI benefits
- Applications for other programs such as approved training or to request withholding of state and federal income taxes from benefit payments
- Information on appealing an unemployment determination

Employment Standards

Email: KDOL.employmentstandards@ks.gov
Phone: (785) 296-5000, opt. 5

The Employment Standards division provides information about employment rights in Kansas. Visit www.dol.ks.gov/laws to learn more about employment rights in Kansas and other information such as:

- Regulations on minimum wage, maximum hours and child labor laws
- Information to assist with complaints involving wage payment
- Required Kansas and federal workplace posters

Labor Market Information

Email: KDOL.laborstats@ks.gov
Phone: (785) 296-5000

The Labor Market Information Services (LMIS) division provides labor market and economic data to many users, including the executive and legislative branches, economists, academia and the public. LMIS produces a wide range of products that are available free of charge to view or download at www.klic.dol.ks.gov. There you will also find:

- Employment and unemployment statistics for the state and sub-state areas
- Employment information by industry
- The latest monthly labor report
- Unemployment insurance weekly reviews
- Annual Kansas Economic Report

Unemployment Tax

Email: KDOL.uitax@ks.gov
Phone: (785) 296-5027

When filing an employer's quarterly unemployment insurance (UI) tax return, the easiest method is online. Visit www.KansasEmployer.gov for more information. There you will find:

- Electronic forms for tax filing
- Information on UI tax payment options, including sending a check, using electronic funds transfer or using a credit card
- State Information Data Exchange System (SIDES) resources
- Unemployment Insurance Employer Handbook
- Kansas Employment Security Law
- How to report required new hire information

Industrial Safety and Health

Email: KDOL.indsafetyhealth@ks.gov
Phone: (785) 296-4386

Private sector employers looking to improve workplace safety can request a free safety consultation. Go to the Workplace Safety section at www.dol.ks.gov/ISH for:

- Assistance with safety program initiation and development
- Training in all areas of safety and health
- Information about the Safety and Health Achievement Recognition Program (SHARP) for small, high-hazard employers
- Amusement park ride inspection information
- Information about the annual Kansas Safety and Health Conference
- Safety and Health Award for Public Employees (SHAPE)
- Safety and health information for public sector employees and how to notify KDOL of a potential hazard
- A list of videos available for check-out from the Safety and Health library

Workers Compensation

Email: KDOL.wc@ks.gov
Phone: (785) 296-4000

Our goal is to ensure employees injured at work, employers, health care providers and insurance carriers receive timely, impartial and fair claim resolution. Visit www.dol.ks.gov/WC for:

- Information for insurance professionals on reporting accidents, payment of benefits and responsibilities in complying with Kansas statutes
- Reporting requirements and guidelines for employers, group pools and self-insured employers
- Proof of WC insurance for individual employers
- Information on the requirements and methods of obtaining WC insurance or becoming an approved self-insured employer for payment of WC benefits
- Current benefit levels for WC payments and an online benefit calculator
- Information on the annual seminar and how to obtain a WC presentation

Fraud

Email: KDOL.fraud@ks.gov OR KDOL.wcfraud@ks.gov
Phone: (785) 296-5000

If someone collects unemployment or workers compensation benefits for which they are not eligible or a business conceals its activities and true tax liability – that's fraud. You can help uncover these crimes by reporting any suspicious activity.

If you think someone is committing fraud against a KDOL program, please report it to us immediately at www.dol.ks.gov/Fraud. All allegations of fraud are taken seriously. Provide as much information about the individual and incident as possible. You may remain anonymous if you prefer.